

RAG stands for Retrieval-Augmented Generation.
It combines information retrieval with large language models.
RAG helps reduce hallucinations by grounding answers in documents.